Feedback from the Employer on Curriculum

Academic Year 2021-2022

The feedback collected from employers of our graduates has been pivotal in refining our B.Ed. and M.Ed. curriculum. This action taken report details the measures implemented in response to employer insights, aimed at better aligning our program with industry expectations and enhancing the employability and performance of our graduates. Our commitment to continuous improvement ensures that our curriculum remains relevant and effective in preparing educators for real-world challenges.

Areas Identified	Action Taken
Curriculum support in terms of employment	Align curriculum content, learning outcomes, and teaching methodologies with the demands of the job market.
Role of curriculum to create interest in higher learning	Encourage faculty members to share their own experiences and enthusiasm for their field of study to inspire students.
Role of curriculum to cultivate values & soft skills	Provide feedback and coaching to help students recognize and strengthen their soft skills throughout their journey.
