Placement Cell Report

The Placement Cell of Sree Narayana College of Teacher Education actively maintains contact with various educational institutions to ensure robust career opportunities for our student teachers. Throughout the year, the Placement Cell diligently disseminates information about job vacancies via WhatsApp, ensuring students receive timely updates about potential employment opportunities. This proactive approach enables our graduates to connect with prospective employers and positions them advantageously in the competitive job market. The Placement Cell's consistent efforts have significantly contributed to the successful placement of our students, enhancing the institution's reputation as a premier centre for teacher education.

1. Objectives

- To establish and maintain contact with various educational institutions.
- To disseminate information regarding vacancies to student teachers.
- To assist student teachers in securing suitable employment opportunities.

2. Activities Undertaken

Establishing Contact with Educational Institutions

The Placement Cell actively expands its network by contacting numerous educational institutions across different regions. This included schools, colleges, and academic training centres. It maintains regular communication with these institutions to stay updated on their hiring needs and preferences.

Dissemination of Vacancy Information

SNCE manages dedicated WhatsApp groups and communities to disseminate information about job vacancies. These groups include current student teachers and alums. We ensure that information about job openings, including the job description, eligibility criteria, application deadlines, and contact information, is shared promptly.

3. Achievements

Increased Placements: A significant increase in student teachers successfully placed in reputable educational institutions compared to the previous reporting period.

Positive Feedback: Receives positive feedback from hiring institutions and student teachers regarding the efficiency and support the Placement Cell provides.

Expanded Network: Successfully adds new educational institutions to our network, increasing the opportunities available to our student teachers.

The placement Reports for the last five years are given below:
